Availability

AU graduate students are strongly encouraged to provide an electronic copy of their project for retention in the University Library. You may release your document for world-wide access via the Library's web catalogue. Alternatively, you may restrict access to the AU campus only or allow access by special request.

Select the level of access to your document:

- Open access - worldwide public access.
- Restrict to AU campus only - available only to AU faculty & students via library proxy authentication.
- Restrict all access for a period of three years. When this period has elapsed access can be either from AU campus only or worldwide.
- Restrict all access for an indefinite period of time for reasons of content confidentiality or proprietary interests. Only if consent is provided by the author can documents be accessible from either AU campus or worldwide.

Copyright Statement

Subject to the release category selected above, I hereby grant to Athabasca University the right to lend my project (the title of which is shown above) to users of the Athabasca University Library, and to make partial or single copies only for such users or in response to a request from the library of any other university, or other educational institution, on its own behalf or for one of its users. I further agree the Program Director or I may grant permission for copying of this work for scholarly purposes conditional upon category selected. It is understood that copying or publication of this work for financial gain shall not be allowed without my written permission.
